

I am a regular K-LOVE listener in Centralia, Washington and oppose allowing proposed LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service. Without the translator service, K-LOVE would not come in clearly in my community. In this age of increasing vulgarity and offensive programming in the media, K-LOVE broadcasts family-safe musical and educational content that I can safely encourage my patients and their families (I'm a pediatrician) to listen to.